Philosophy. There's many a trouble
Would bresk like a bubble,
And into the waters of Lette depart,
Bid not we rehearse it,
And tenderly nurse it,

Andgive it a permanent place in the heart, There's many a sorrow Would vanish to morrow
Were we not unwilling to furnish the wings,
So sadly intruding
And quictly brooding. It hatches out all sorts of horrible things.

How welcome the seeming Of looks that are beaming, Whether one's wealthy or whether one's poor?

Kyes bright as a borry. Checks red as a cherry.

The gross and the carse and the heartache can cure

Resolved to be merev. All worry to ferry
Across the famed waters that lid us forget;
And no longer tearful,
But happy and cheerful,
We feel life has much that's worth living for yet.

The Richmond Dispatch of Saturday was an eight-page paper, containing much valuable statistical matter.- Russell Progress.

POLITICAL ECONOMY ON THE STREET.-The Boston Times has the following : Disappointed Creditor: "This is the ises-United States promises." Non-plussed Creditor: Yes; but they will be paid some time." Tranquil Debtor: "Pay you same day. By-by, Mr. Smith."

WHAT'S A PHILOSOPHER ?-" Who's Herbert Spencer, pop?" asked an inquiring Brooklyn boy of his father the other morning. "He's a famous English philosopher, my

"And what's a philosopher?" continued the lad, with the business air of a person who could keep right on asking questions until doomsday. "A philosopher," returned the father gravely, "is a man who never marries."-Brooklyn Argus.

A San Francisco correspondent writes that the ladies of that city are great speculators. So are Brooklyn ladies: Ardent young suitor: "Do you love me, Pauline?" Clinton-avenue belle: "You know I do, Armand." Young suitor: "Will you promise to be mine?" Brooklyn belle: "I can't say now; give me a week to answer." He gives her a week to answer, and she immediately hires a detective to find out what his prospects are. - Brooklyn Argus.

A liberal-minded Englishman, who seems to apprehend an imminent cataclysm, has sent to the Arctic seas 15,000 tightly carked bottles, each containing a history of the world, according to the Mosaic records, from the creation to the second primacy of Mr. Disraeli. They are to be imbedded in repa rate parcels in the ice, to the end that T the existing inscriptions and memorials of the world fail, a remote posterity, between whom and ourselves the Englishman doubtless conjectures that a new deluge is to roll, shall have an added chance of recovering and perusing the antique legend of the world on which they live .- World.

Much amusement has been caused, a Paris correspondent writes, by the letter from the Bishop of Orleans, in which he speaks of his election to the Senate as equivalent to his being placed, like Daniel, in the fiery furnace. The Univers reminds the Bishop that he ought to "search the Scriptures," and he would see that Daniel never was in the fiery furnace.

Did it ever occur to you, kind mammas, asks the thoughtful Boston Transcript, while trotting your babies on your laps in such a vigorous way that if some giant, about ten times your size, were to trot you in a similar style the breath would be very apt to be jounced out of your body? A western editor apologizes to his readers somewhat after this fashion: "We expected to have a death and a marriage to publish this week, but a violent storm prevented the wedding, and the doctor being sick himself, the patient recovered, and we are accordingly cheated out of both." Chicago Tribune: A facetious lawyer who heard "Macbeth" rehearsed was struck by the answer of the witches when asked what they were doing: "A deed without a name." "Why, that's void," exclaimed the lawyer. "I'll bust 'a deed without a name' in any court of Christendom."

Free Press: A New Jersey man is writing a history of that State, and in it he is going to prove that George Washington was a liar and an extortioner. He says he has documents showing that George bated cats, and a man who bates cats will do most any mean

The solid men of Boston are thoughtful over the case of a debtor who comes to the meeting of his creditors behind a stylish pair of horses and a bright-buttoned driver, and offers twenty-five cents on the dollar and drives off again.

You might dump several city directories and mercantile price-lists anywhere into Mr. Whitman's poetry without burting the sound .- Chicago Times.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

DANGEROUS SUNKEN ROCK.—Captain Morgan, of the English bark Professor Aver, which arrived at Pisco recently from Cardiff, reports baving discovered a shallow which is not marked on the map. When about 180 miles from the coast of Brazil. In latitude 18 south, longitude 36.04 west, with a light breeze, and only going about two knots an hour, his vessel struck and became immovable. After an hour's hard work they succeeded in getting her cff, and Captain Morgan then took some soundings. He found 17½ feet of water where he had been aground, and near it he found 30 fathoms, whilst in sounding again the line broke. He believes the shallow to be a coral reef in course of formation. DESIRABLE UNIMPROVED SPRINGS
PROPERTY FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—I offer for sale privately a bold, free-flowing SPRING which by qualitative analysis proves to be similar to the Healing Springs of Virginia. The spring has been known to consist of medical virtue, curing diseases of inflammatory nature, for many years, but had not been until recently analyzed. There is connected with this spring about TEN ACRES OF LAND, beautifully located, about one hundred yards distant from Bell's Valley depot. on the i chesapeake and Ohio railroad, Rockbridge county, Va., distant one hundred and fifty miles from Richmond, Va., twelve miles from Rockbridge and Jordan Alum Springs, and sixty miles from the celebrated White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

Owing to the location, being immediately on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, the great thoroughfate from the ocean to the great West, situated in the most beautiful region in the State, this property can be made in a few years second to none other in the State of Virginia.

The old settlers of the county in which the springs are located can abundantly testify to the curative qualities of this water. Upon the same land is also a bold-flowing spring of freestone water.

The whole property has been recently enclosed land is also a bold-flowing spring water.

The whole property has been recently enclosed with an excellent plank fence, and is so located with a fine grove of timber as to admit of any kind of improvement that may be desired.

The supply of water is abundant, being derived from a large, bold spring. The water is beautifully bright and chrystalline, and the ever-bursting bubles of gas impart to it a peculiar, sparking appearance.

The little place of "Bell's Valley Depot" is rapidly improving, a number of lots having been sold recently, and the demand still increasing, which in a short time will make it an important point on the ine of the railroad.

For further information in regard to terms and analysis of water address the undersigned at Craigsville, Augusta county, Va.

established their ADVERTISING AGENCY

NEW YORK CITY.

Five years ago they absorbed the business conducted by Mr. John Hooper, who was the first to go into this kind of enterprise. Now they have the satisfaction of controlling the most extensive and complete advertising connection which has ever been secured, and one which would be hardly possible in any other country but this. They have succeeded in working down a complex business into so thoroughly a systematic method that no change in the newspaper system of America can escape notice, while the widest information upon all topics to interesting advertisers is placed readily at the disposal of the public.—New York Times, June 14, 1875.
